PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On Monday, July 7, 2008, Border Patrol Agent R. Rauseo was conducting Border Patrol Duties in Jamul, California. At approximately 6:00 a.m., Agent Rauseo responded to a seismic intrusion device activation near the Otay Truck Trail. This area is located approximately 8 miles east of the Otay Mesa, California Port-of-Entry and approximately 2 miles north of the International Border between the United States and Mexico.

Border Patrol Agent J. Kovach, who was operating an infrared scope truck in the area, observed five individuals walking northbound. Agent Kovach directed Agent Rauseo towards the five individuals. At approximately 6:30 a.m., Agent Rauseo located five individuals resting. Agent Rauseo identified himself as a Border Patrol Agent and performed an immigration inspection. All five, including one later identified as the defendant Gibert GARCIA-Gonzalez, (aka: Gilberto GARCIA-Guerrero) stated that they were citizens of Mexico and that they had entered illegally by walking through the mountains. All five were placed under arrest and transported to the Brown Field Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on November 26, 2007 through the Port of Entry at San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.
